Insurance Verification Reminder

Hello!

As we approach your service date, this is a friendly reminder to contact your insurance carrier and obtain an update on your mental health coverage and benefits. While we do our very best to remain up to date on patient insurance details, we like to remind patients to follow up on such information to avoid any unforeseen costs to you as part of deductible, coinsurance, or copay amounts your insurance may require you to pay.

Therapy Patients

You can locate the customer phone number on the back of your insurance card. When you call this number to speak with a representative you could ask the following questions:

- “Can you tell me what the expected cost to me would be for therapy billing codes 90832, 90834, 90837, and 90847?”
- “Can you help me understand my mental health benefits for therapy?”
- “Does my plan require me to pay towards a deductible for therapy?”
- “Do I have a coinsurance amount for therapy?”
- “Do I have a copay amount for therapy?”
